Dear Matt,

Your recent PRR for a list of all committees created, and presently existing, for the City of Broussard, as well as members of said committees has been referred to my office for formal handling and response.

We have reached out to appropriate personnel with the City of Broussard to determine what, if any, committees have been created and presently exist. Please be advised that we anticipate it may take up to 5-7 business days to research, retrieve, review and/or redact any documents responsive to your public records request.

If you have any questions in the interim, please let me know.

Thank you,

Joy Rabalais
