Art. 556.1 Compliance-Possible Consequences to a Plea of Guilty or No Contest

I, Jayon Pete, have been advised if I plead guilty or no contest, I may lose entitlement to certain Federal and State Rights temporarily or permanently. Those rights include but are not limited to:

1. The right to remain in the United States if I am not a natural born or naturalized citizen of the United States. I can be and may be deported to my country of origin or other places designated by the Federal Government, even though my charges are State charges.
2. I may lose my right to vote in Local, State, and Federal elections temporarily or permanently.
3. I may lose my Federal and State rights to own, possess and to bear firearms of any type, including but not limited to legal hunting, sports, and employment, including as law enforcement and service in the United States Military Armed Forces.
4. I may lose my Federal and State rights to due process under the law which is not limited to but may include the right to privacy and to be free from warrantless searches. For example, I may be searched and/or seized by a Probation/Parole Officer without warrant while I am on Probation or Parole. I may also be detained.
5. I may lose my Federal and State rights to equal protection under the law which is not limited to but may include the right to work, live and be at places of my choosing without interference from governmental entities. For example, if I am convicted of a sex offense, domestic violence offense, or are under a protective order of the court, I may be subject to restrictions on housing, employment, or presence near victims or persons protected by the Orders of the Court regardless of age and relationship. I may be restricted or prohibited from social media.
6. I may lose my Federal and State rights to college admission and/or access to Financial Aid and Assistance Programs.
7. I may lose my Federal and State rights to Housing Assistance Programs.
8. I may lose my Federal and State rights to employment including but not limited to practice professions for which license is required to be issued.
9. I may lose my Federal and State rights to public benefits including but not limited to Unemployment Insurance Benefit Payments, Social Security, SSI, Medicaid, Medicare, Food Stamps, WIC, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT), Pandemic Electronic Benefit Transfer (P-EBT), and other governmental assistance programs.
10. If I have one or more convictions of crimes, and this plea results in a second or subsequent conviction, the State can charge me as a Habitual Offender. If I am convicted of being a Habitual Offender, my exposure to jail time may increase without parole eligibility.
11. I understand that if a Protective Order or other Court Order is in place and in effect, that contact by any means with the protected person or persons is a separate violation of the criminal law and may be contempt of court in addition to grounds for revocation of bond, Probation or Parole, and that my right and ability to own, possess, use, carry or otherwise be in the vicinity of a firearm may be impeded temporarily under both State and Federal law or for the period of Probation, Parole or the term of the Protective Order or permanently.
12. I understand that if I am on Probation or Parole the standard for revocation is not beyond a reasonable doubt (as at a trial), but it is a mere preponderance of the evidence. All the constitutional rights afforded the defendant in a criminal trial are not provided to the probationer and hearsay is admissible.

I UNDERSTAND THAT ALL EXAMPLES LISTED ABOVE ARE MERE ILLUSTRATIONS AND NOT EXCLUSIVE. OTHER CONSEQUENCES MAY OCCUR.

PARISH OF St. Martin

Pursuant to the Louisiana Code of Criminal Procedure Article 875.1(C)(1), "the Court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether payment in full of the aggregate amount of all the financial obligations to be imposed upon the defendant would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his/her dependents."

"The defendant may waive the judicial determination of a substantial financial hardship required by the provisions of this Paragraph." Louisiana Code of Criminal Procedure Article 875.1(C)(2).

By signing this waiver, the defendant asserts the ability to provide payment for fines, fees, costs, restitution, or as other monetary obligations related to [their] criminal sentence, incarceration, or as condition of the defendant's release on probation or parole. Louisiana Code of Criminal Procedure Article 875.1(B).

I, Javon Pete, hereby acknowledge and understand that I am waiving my right to a hearing be the Court to determine whether the financial obligations imposed upon me will create a substantial financial hardship to me or my dependents and assert that I have means and ability to pay such financial obligations.
